

ROMANIA

Interesting facts about Romania

- ✚ Romania's national currency is Leu, which means lion (English)
- ✚ Romania has the best preserved Delta in Europe
- ✚ Romanian is the only Romance language in Eastern Europe
- ✚ Romania has 7 UNESCO World Heritage Sites
- ✚ Romania boasts the world's largest administrative building
- ✚ Romanian inventors have changed the world
- ✚ Try <https://tinyurl.com/ycfqg77q>

Our city: Galati

Galati is the largest Romanian city on the Danube, but also one of the most important economic and cultural centers in Moldova. The atmosphere of this city, close to three borders, is heavily influenced by its location on the Danube. The beautiful natural scenery that surrounds Galati is a good reason to visit this wonderful place.

Galati travel guide

BOTANICAL GARDEN

At the end of the Danube Coast is one of the most beautiful places in Galati - an impressive botanical garden that houses thousands of plant varieties, many of them protected or exotic. The Botanical Garden in Galati is part of the Museum of Natural Sciences Complex, which includes an aquarium with hundreds of fish and the most modern astronomical observer.

THE DANUBE CLIFF

The most beautiful panoramas in Galați can be admired from the Danube River. An emblematic place for this city, the Danube Cliff has plenty of entertainment options, from stunning walks along the river bank, to floating pontoon restaurants and vapors, various shows and a lot of sculptures.

FORTIFIED CHURCH OF THE "HOLY PRECISTA"

Close to the Danube cliff we have a church, but not a simple one. Precista is the oldest touristic objective in Galati built between the years 1643-1646 it is actually a "Safe" place in case of war, being fortified. Being burnt and robbed by the otomans, destroyed by the Russian- Otoman wars it remains one of the oldest and greatest church here in Galati. If you like history and you want to feel like you were living in the mid 16's make sure to bring your notebook with you.

2 wonderful places to walk through

THE TOWER OF TELEVISION

Measuring around 100 meters in height we go to the television tower. A master-piece of modern engineering. The tower, completed in 1978, is equipped with a tower restaurant, perhaps the only of this kind in Romania. It was used to broadcast FM and TV.

People have to visit these places

THE HISTORY MUSEUM OF GALATI

At the history museum can be found the memories of the Romanian aviation. In the first exposition, the public can see photos and find informations about two of the most important archeological sites from galati, Trighina-Barbosi. If you are fascinated about aviation make sure to take a look at the history museum from Galati.